

Informational Resources for Medication Assisted Treatment and Substance Use Disorders

Below is a list of references you are able to explore for education and information regarding Medication Assisted Treatment for Substance Use Disorders and the different medications that are utilized.

Providers' Clinical Support System for Opioid Therapies (PCSS-O.org):

- National Training
 - Free CME programs on safe & effective use of opioids & treatment of opioid use disorder
 - Webinars & training modules
- Mentoring
 - PCSS offers clinicians the unique opportunity to connect with a network of national experts in the field of pain management & substance use disorders

Providers' Clinical Support System for Medication Assisted Treatment (PCSSMAT.org)

- Information on Buprenorphine, Methadone, Naltrexone
- Training
 - Webinars & Naltrexone modules
 - 8 hour Buprenorphine waiver training course
- Mentoring (<http://pcssmat.org/mentoring/request-a-mentor/>)
 - Small group discussions with experts (less than 10 attendees per group)
 - PCSS discussion forum – discuss MAT related questions & issues with PCSS mentors
 - Clinical experts provide support via email, telephone or in person when viable

Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA.gov/medication-assisted-treatment):

- Educational resources & training materials
- APA, AAP, & IRETA webinars
- Information on Buprenorphine, Methadone, Naltrexone, Naloxone, Opioid Overdose & Comorbidities

American Society of Addiction Medicine (<https://www.asam.org/resources>):

- ASAM National Practice Guideline
- Research articles
- CME, resources & tools